The story of the Valachi breakhrough appeared Sunday in a copyrighted story in the Washington Star. The Justice Department confirmed the essentials.

At the head of "Cosa Nostra" Valachi placed Vito Genovese, 66year-old Italian-born narcotics oss serving a 15-year sentence at Atlanta Penitentiary.

Genovese plotted the Apalachin neeting. While Valachi was not prominent enough to attend, he was high enough in the organization to know what went on - and or a time later, he was Geovese's cellmate in Atlanta.

TOP PRO GRID TEAMS BOW IN EXHIBITIONS

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer Exhibition games don't count in the standings but the electrifying victory of the College All-Stars over the great Green Bay Packers and the surprising results in the first American Football League tuneups may have a bearing on the pro championships.

The 20-17 triumph of Otto Graham's rookies over the National Football League champions at Chicago on Friday night removed the Packers' aura of invincibility.

No team has won three straight championships since the NFL started its playoff system in 1933 and the Packers may be in for lots of trouble in their bid lots of trouble in their bid.

A Living Legend:

Sirikit Works At Being Thai Queen

EDITOR'S NOTE: She's beautiful, beloved and one of the world's best-dressed women. But the villages of her country are filled with poverty and disease. What is the Queen of Thailand doing to help her people? Here is an on-the-spot appraisal of a woman sometimes called the Jackie Kennedy of Asia. By DORIS KLEIN

"I think we can," said Nilon, it (the fight) will be held because tallies. I am an eternal optimist."

PLAN SECRET

Nilon would not disclose his plan until he discussed it with accountants and Liston.

Nilon said he expected the fight, which would be held in in $7 million.

Liston and Bob and Jim Nilon, brothers of Jack, had formed Funt, 2b, p
Adams, if, p, 2b intercontinental Promotions Inc., to promote the fight. This would D. Wilkinson, 3b enable the champion to share th corporate profits, which would be taxable at a much lower rate tha his purse and could be investe as security. Liston owns 471/2 pe cent of Intercontinental and Bo and Jim Nilon 471/2 per cent. Jac Nilon does not hold any stock,

The Pennsylvania Athletic Cor mission ruled last Wednesday however, that Liston in effe could not fight under his own promotion.

Last Thursday, Bob and Jim a-Baldwin Nilon came up with an alternate plan approved by Al Klein, a commission member, Under this Mummasburg plan, they agreed to promote the fight in a partnership and give Liston a larger share of the receipts to help compensate for his

QUICK RECOVERY flameless electric water heating at MECO'S NEW LOWER RATE

In every way, the new, compact Quick Recovery Electric Water Heater is your best and most economical buy.

Because of its smaller size it costs less to buy. It's flameless so there's no need for flue, vent or chimney connection. It can be installed close to the point of hot water use which means shorter pipe runs thereby reducing plumbing costs.

And now it costs less than ever to have all the hot water you want. Meco's NEW LOWER water heating rate offers worthwhile savings.

Flameless electric water heaters, on the average, have more than a 50% longer life than other types of water heaters. Also, they assure trouble-free operation with practically no cleaning, servicing or maintenance.

WIRING INSTALLED* FREE!

Now . . . during July, August and September only . . . install a FLAMELESS ELECTRIC WATER HEATER with FREE wiring ... includes 100 amp. service if needed.

*Offer applies to any existing single family dwelling served by this company.
